

We had time for a few photos before our meal and cake cutting. This is Lamech, who is a new brother candidate, studying at the catechetical school.

Once inside, we were seated at the head table: the Bishop's secretary, Fr. Phillip, Fr. Andrzej, Fr. Daniel, Fr. Paul, and Deacon Yohana.

All the decorations were beautiful and the spirit in the room was incredible. Everyone was so happy for Fr. Phillip and his family.

The ordination cake had a chalice with icing in the shape of hosts on the top! It was leaning a bit, but it seemed stable enough! Fr. Phillip did a great job cutting the cake!

Everyone had a piece: Fr. Phillip, Fr. Daniel, Fr. Andrzej, and Fr. Paul.

Seminarians Leonsi, Gervas, Mario, Vitalis, and Joseph wait their turns!

Fr. Paul really liked his piece of cake!

Part of the fun is dancing with the cake. Fr. Daniel handed the cake to me. I did a combination of break-dancing and my limbo moves. I then handed it back to Phillip...intact!

People said that I could REALLY dance. I think this speaks volumes of the politeness and tolerance of Tanzanians!
