

Justice and Peace Sharing Fund

July 2017 - June 2018

Sarah's House School Supplies - $3,729.74 - July 2017

Funds collected help defray school related costs, such as Weekly Reader subscriptions, field trip expenses, locks, school project supplies, gym uniforms, etc.

Habitat for Humanity of the Chesapeake - $1,412.24 - August 2017

Ecumenical Christian organization builds or renovates houses in partnership with needy low-income families in Anne Arundel County. Sold with no profit and zero interest mortgage.

Interfaith Housing Alliance (Western Maryland) - $1,412.23 - August 2017

An organization of caring faith communities in the five counties of Western Maryland, whose objectives are to develop affordable housing for low- and moderate-income persons, create jobs and strengthen the region's economy.

Catholic Charities USA - $7,286.51 - September 2017

Hurricane Relief

Bello Machre, Inc. - $1,050.50 - October 2017

A non-profit organization which provides loving care and creates opportunities for children and adults with development disabilities to live and work as independently as possible.

Opportunity Builders Inc. - $1,050.50 - October 2017

A non-profit organization providing training and services to adults with developmental disabilities living in Anne Arundel County and adjacent communities. The training is to help the adults function and pay their way in the community.

The Arc of Central Chesapeake Region - $1,050.51 - October 2017

Serves over 450 people with mental retardation. Supported living, residential services, family services, respite, advocacy and volunteer opportunities.

Anne Arundel County Food Bank - $1,706.50 - November 2017

Distributes food to food pantries and soup kitchens through the county so the organizations can feed the hungry. Also distributes furniture and other household items to clients through referrals from the Department of Social Services

Maryland Food Bank - $1,706.60 - November 2017

Distributes food donated from the food industry and food drives to food providers so these organizations can feed hungry Marylanders.

Our Lady of the Visitation, Gonaives, Haiti - $3,256.50 - December 2017

Our sister parish in the Diocese of Gonaives, Haiti, to help pay the salaries of the teachers at the parish school.

Food for the Poor - $1,730.20 - January 2018

Collects and distributes food, clothing, money, and supplies to indigent persons throughout the world to improve their health, economic, and social conditions.

International Rescue Committee - $1,730.19 - January 2018

Provides food, shelter, emergency relief/medical, educational, and resettlement services for refugees in Africa, Asia, and Central America who flee persecution, terror, famine, and war.

Asylee Women Enterprises (AWE) - $1,401.45 - February 2018

Asylee Women Enterprise (AWE) provides transitional housing to women seeking asylum. Housing is one of the biggest obstacles for women seeking asylum. In order to be able to rebuild their lives and their spirit we all must have a safe and nurturing home.

Project PLASE - $1,401.45 - February 2018

Project PLASE (People Lacking Ample Shelter and Employment) began in 1973 to address and remedy the absence of services and resources available to Baltimore's most needy citizens.

Our Lady of the Visitation, Gonaives, Haiti - $4,485.20 - February 2018

Our sister parish in the Diocese of Gonaives, Haiti.

Sisters Academy - $1,064.02 - March 2018

The Catholic middle school for girls opened its doors in September 2004. Sisters Academy is sponsored by the School Sisters of Notre Dame, the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur, the Religious Sisters of Mercy and the Sisters on Bon Secours. The academy is modeled on the national Nativity School movement, which focuses on providing high-quality, tuition-free, value-centered education in low-income communities.

St. Frances Academy - $1,064.01 - March 2018

The country's oldest African-American Catholic high school run by the Oblate Sisters of Providence, located in Baltimore City. 95% of graduates go on to college and students tutor public school students in the neighborhood, and provide services for senior citizens.

St. Ignatius Loyola - $1,064.02 - March 2018

A high school celebrating its tenth anniversary in educating boys from the most challenged neighborhoods in Baltimore City, giving them the opportunity to become "Men for Others" in the Jesuit tradition and giving them an education that could change their lives.

Mary's Pence - $1,697.38 - April 2018

The mission is to recognize and support the work of Catholic women, both lay and religious, who minister to the economically poor throughout the Americas and who are without access to traditional sources of funding from government, church, or foundation sources.

Salvadoran Enterprises for Women (SEW), Inc. - $1,697.38 - April 2018

Providing meaningful employment for women in El Salvador by building and managing the financial resources, community networks, solidarity efforts, and the U.S. and Salvadoran markets that facilitate new and help expand existing opportunities.

Resurrectionists Missions - $3,143.90 - May 2018

Resurrectionists Missions in South America and Tanzania.

Our Lady of the Visitation, Gonaives, Haiti- $3,869.36 - June 2018

Repairs to our sister parish in Haiti.

Parishioner Donated Sub-Total – 43,531.09

Funds donated from the parish budget for Fiscal Year 2018 - $2,500

Benedictine Sisters of Baltimore - $300

The Benedictine Sisters of Baltimore, a community of monastic women who follow the Rule of Benedict. Through our prayer, Liturgy of the Hours, and a variety of ministries, we endeavor to bring the richness of a 1500 year tradition into today's world. Sharing a common life at Emmanuel Monastery we welcome all who seek God.

Camp GLOW - $300

Camp GLOW (God Loves Our World) is a week-long residential summer camp for adults with disabilities held at the Monsignor O'Dwyer Retreat Center in Sparks, MD

Catholic Medical Mission Board - $300

Rooted in the healing ministry of Jesus, works collaboratively to provide quality health care programs and services without discrimination, to people in need throughout the world.

Fonkoze - $300

It is Haiti's Alternative Bank for the Organized Poor. It is the largest micro-finance institution offering a full range of financial services to the rural-based poor in Haiti. Fonkoze is committed to the economic and social improvement of people and communities of Haiti and to the reduction of poverty in the country.

Murphy Initiative for Justice and Peace - $300

The P. Francis Murphy Justice and Peace Initiative (PFMJPI) is envisioned as a common voice of member religious communities to work collaboratively for social justice and to support and supplement the ongoing justice and peace work within each community.

Parish Twinning Program - $400

An organization that links parishes in the U.S. with those in Haiti. Facilitates communications between the parishes and coordinates the shipments of cargo containers of supplies.

Partners in Care - $300

Partners in Care is a service credit exchange program designed to create community by linking frail elderly and disabled adults with neighbors who volunteer their time to help with occasional tasks and errands. The goal of these services is to help seniors and disabled adults remain independent in their own homes.

Rebuilding Together Anne Arundel County - $300

Volunteer based home rehabilitation organization repairing homes owner by low-income families with children, the elderly, veterans and the disabled at no cost to the homeowner.

Budgeted Sub-Total - $2,500.00

Total amount donated - $46,031.09